

Exciting New Collection of Abstract Art by Anthony Bell

Dear Abstract Art Aficionados,

Verse Media is excited to announce the launch of Anthony Bell's latest collection of abstract art, available for viewing and purchase on his new website: www.anthony-bell.art live from June 1, 2024.

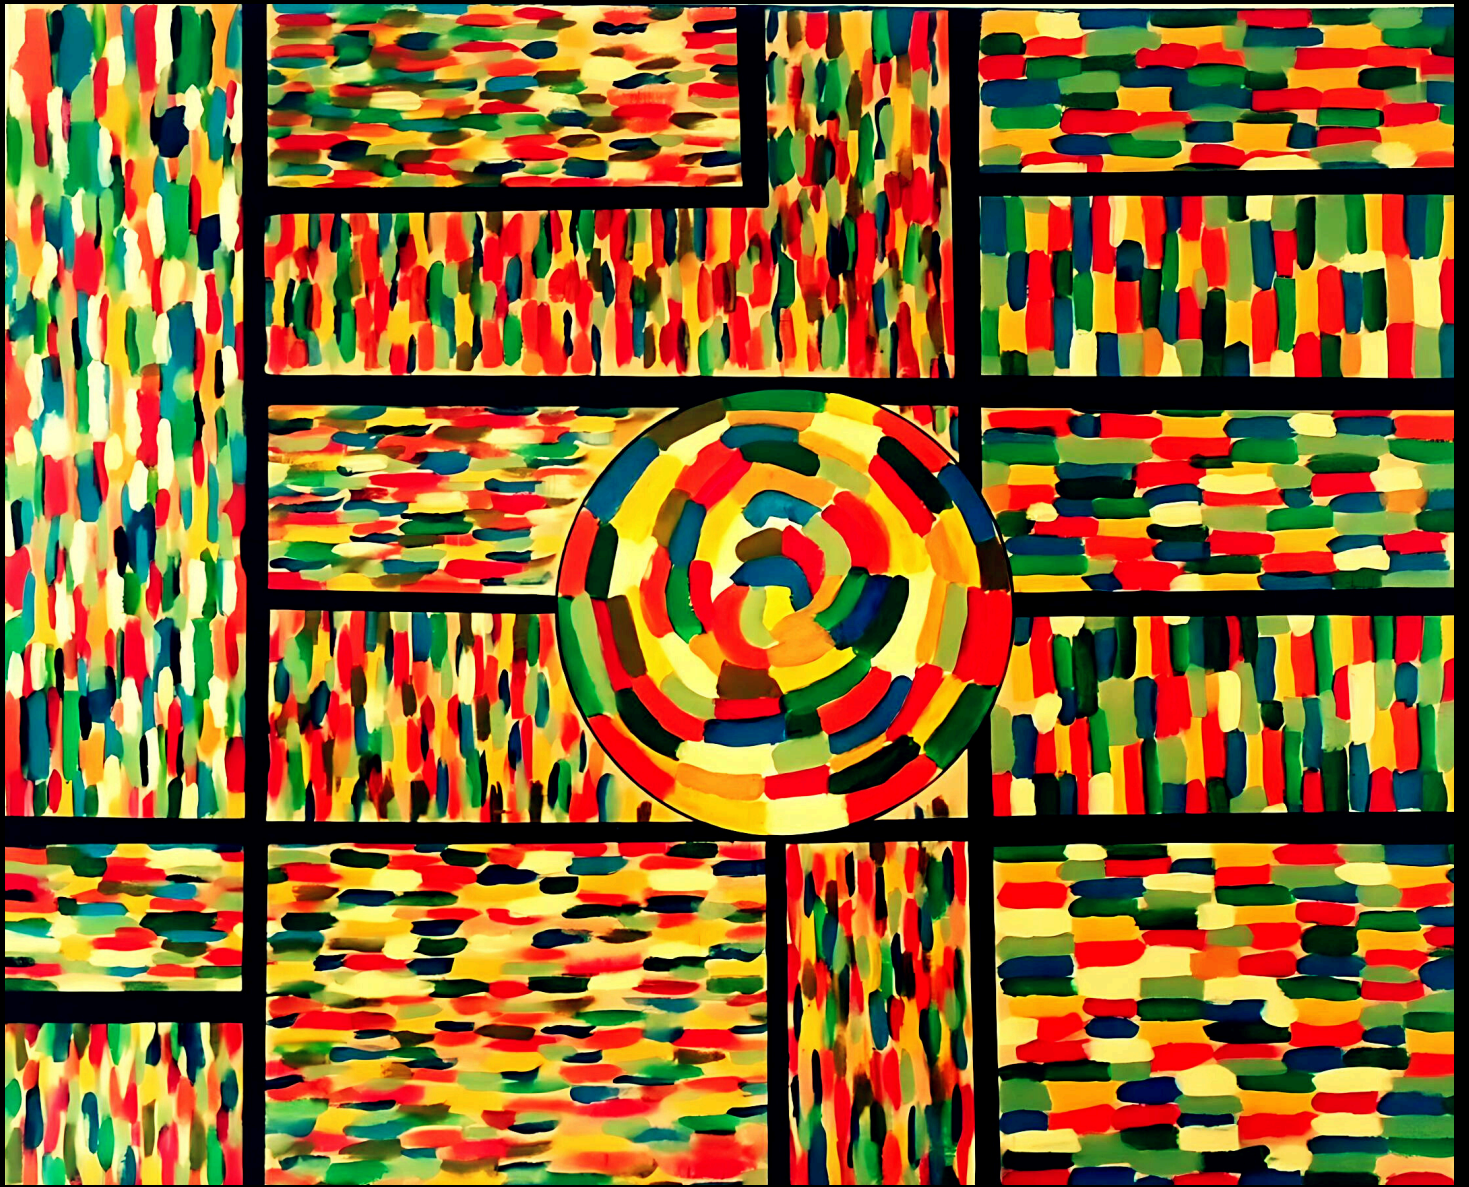

Anthony Bell, an artist with a rich background in both the music and art worlds, has created a stunning collection that reflects his life's journey and the vibrant cultures that he has immersed himself in. This engaging new collection includes remarkable works such as:

- "Nod to Mr K No.2": Celebrating Vasily Kandinsky's contributions as the 'father' of abstract art.
- "Carnival No.2": Capturing the vibrant energy of Brazilian carnivals, during the 10 years Anthony lived in Brazil.
- "Flaming Glass": Depicting the explosive energy of a fiery blast.
- "Toxic Jungle No.2": Inspired by Bell's environmental plea in "Say Goodbye to Mother Earth" a song he wrote in 1982.
- "Ebb & Flow - No.1 & No.2": Inspired by the rocky coastline of Cabo de Gata and the interplay of the sea during Almeria's winter.
- "The Black & White Series": A tribute to monochrome art.
- "The Beast": Exploring the dark parts of the human soul.
- "No Way Home": Inspired by a Bob Dylan song, reflecting on the search for love and family; when so many of us with no way home!

Anthony Bell's work is a testament to his passion for abstract art and his commitment to confronting environmental issues through his art. We invite you to explore his thought provoking universe of abstraction and consider adding these impactful works to your gallery or interior design projects.

Please visit: www.anthony-bell.art from 1st June, and for any inquiries, purchases and commissions please contact Anthony directly at: anthonybellart@gmail.com.

“No Way Home” by Anthony Bell

Anthony Bell

“Toxic Jungle No.2” I